Visiting Scholar Lecture

"PROMOTING PHYSICAL ACTIVITY: A NATIONAL AGENDA"

Friday, November 6, 2009  10:00-10:50 a.m.
KHS 199 - Auditorium

Presented By:
Amelia M. Lee, PhD
Member, Coordinating Committee
U.S. National Physical Activity Plan

Dr. Amelia Lee, a well-known expert in the field of physical activity, physical education, and health is a member of the National Physical Activity Plan Coordinating Committee, along with representatives from the American Heart Association, Centers for Disease Control, American Academy of Pediatrics, American College of Sports Medicine, American Kinesiology Association, and others.

All are invited to attend this lecture to learn more about the nation’s comprehensive plan to promote physical activity and health in the American population. Dr. Lee’s numerous professional leadership roles include serving as President of the Research Consortium of AAHPERD, as Editor of Quest, as a Fellow in the American Academy of Kinesiology and Physical Education, as a member of the Science Board for the President’s Council for Physical Fitness and Sport, and as Chair of the Department of Kinesiology at Louisiana State University.

Sponsored by:
Departments of Kinesiology and Health Science
Health Promotion Research Institute
College of Health and Human Development